

UHF CHANNELS

channel	allocation
1 to 8	Used to transmit via repeater - sometimes called duplex
5	Calling emergency repeaters - allocated in law
9	General use
10	4WD Drivers in convoy and is recommended in national parks - by courteous agreement
11	This channel is used to call another user who may be listening on the call channel - such as a friend. After contact you must move to another channel - allocated in law.
12 to 17	General use
18	Caravaners and camper trailers - by courteous agreement
19 to 21	General use
22, 23	Signalling and telemetry channels only. No voice transmissions allowed on these two channels - established by law
24 to 30	General use
29	Highway
31 to 38	Duplex mode - established by law
35	Emergency repeater
39	General use
40	Truckie channel - used by highway vehicles and trucks - established by tradition.