

Australian CamperTrailers Group

The non profit www.campertrailers.org has built into a fantastic resource for everything camper trailers thanks to the generous input by members.

The website is the home of the Australian CamperTrailers Forum & the Australian CamperTrailers Facebook Group. The group itself began as the Australian CamperTrailers Yahoo Group in 2001. Yahoo recently removed all web content.

It provides a place for members to chat which is free of commercial advertising, pressures or promotion of any kind. Manufacturers of camper trailers & camping accessory suppliers are welcome to join the groups to share their knowledge & experience. We welcome their participation & the expertise they bring as long as it is unbiased & free of commercial advertising. Membership is free.

If you would like to chat camper trailers, travel or just camping in general, you will find you are right at home with a bunch of like-minded people. Members come from all walks of life, but have a common interest in the great outdoors. Hope we can exchange experiences & learn a little from each other.

Members own a wide selection of camping accommodation ranging from swags, tents, box trailers, slide-ons (which sit on the rear of utes), hybrids, on & off road caravans, right through to converted buses, as well as on & off road camper trailers of all makes & models. Members from other countries are also welcome which gives us an insight into how others camp outside our own environment.

There are many members who have joined the group seeking advice when it comes to buying a camper trailer. We do not push one brand over another, but with the combined help from members who own camper trailers, we hope to steer them in the right direction & help make an educated decision.

At times weekend get togethers are arranged by the Australian CamperTrailers Group co-owners which gives members a chance to meet each other. It also gives those looking at buying a camper trailer an opportunity to check campers over first hand & get an unbiased opinion from their owners. You may meet as complete strangers, but part as old friends, such is the camaraderie.

Due to legal issues no events can be organised without full prior consultation with the Australian CamperTrailers Group co-owners and their consent. As well as the regular weekend camping get togethers there is a yearly national meet where members gathered to enjoy each others company, chat camper trailers, cook on the open fire, exchange recipes, check modifications to campers & explore the area. There are organised workshops on a variety of subjected focused on camping & travel by members & invited guests.

Please keep in mind that the Australian CamperTrailers Group co-owners will not accept any responsibility for members or non-members actions during weekend get togethers. If you decide to attend, it is solely at your own responsibility, including any side trips or outings during the weekend meet.

No claim is made for the accuracy or authenticity of the content on the Australian CamperTrailers website, forum or facebook group. In no event will the Australian CamperTrailers Group co-owners or its members be liable for the accuracy of information contained in it, its use or reliance placed on it. There are no dangerous or illegal topics found on the website.

The information on the website is provided on the basis that all persons accessing the website undertake responsibility for assessing the relevance and accuracy of its content. It is suggested you seek more than one opinion on important topics.

Please feel free to use the information on the CamperTrailers website as a reference & share it with others, as long as you don't claim the work as your own, change it in any way or use it commercially.

The Australian CamperTrailers Group is proud of the fact it is not affiliated with any camper trailer manufacturers, commercial outlets or accessory suppliers, however the groups co-owners have organised discounts for members with some suppliers.

The groups website can be found at <http://www.campertrailers.org>
Australian CamperTrailers Forum <http://www.campertrailers.org/group>
Australian CamperTrailers Facebook Group <https://www.facebook.com/groups/1859402180956>

Hope to see you online or at one of the regular get togethers.

Rob, Kevin & Jason
co-owners Australian CamperTrailers Group

www.campertrailers.org

UHF1.8